Subject: Ihr Interview mit "Green Day"

"Wir müssen uns Rettungsinselfn suchen", Bayerische Rundschau, Beilage Fränkischer Tag, Samstag, 27. Januar, 2024

Sehr geehrter Herr RÜth, meine Partnerin good rune hat mich gebeten, Ihnen den folgenden Brief zu senden. Mit freundlichen Grüßen
Alex Kaiser

Lieber, geschätzter Herr RÜth, danke für dieses Interview - es hat in mir konkret Gestalt werden lassen, was mich schon Wochenlang bewegt - es hat mir eine Möglichkeit gezeigt wie weder Mr. Biden noch Mr. Trump als Präsidenten der USA gewählt werden müssen;

dazu brauche ich Sie;

ich möchte meine Gedanken (die hier folgen werden) der Band "Green Day", vor allem B.J. Armstrong, vorstellen möglichst bald und bitte deshalb Sie, diese Gedanken an "Green Day" weiterzuleiten, denn Sie haben aufgrund des Interviews ganz andere Kontaktmöglichkeiten als ich; bitte - tun Sie das?

gerne können Sie alles vorher lesen natürlich und mir auch gerne Ihre Meinung sagen

ich schreib auf englisch so gut ich kann, hoffentlich klappt's Ihnen, lieber Herr RÜth, schon mal DANKE

also - well:

Dear B.J., Mike and Tré Cool,
how are you?

This is no ordinary fan mail so I'll cut the "wow" stuff and get right down to the reason why I write to you:

I've read the interview you gave to Steffen RÜth, a German journalist; B.J., you say you don't regard yourself as an activist and you also say that fear, hate and an unwillingness to forgive, weapons and threats dominate life in the US of A at the moment

I agree - I've written about that topic ~~on~~ in www.goodrune.de -> letters -> Dear Mr. President https://goodrune.de/files/Dear_Mr_President.pdf and sent my suggestions to change the situation to Mr. Biden 2 years ago ...

now my thoughts for you:

you've made music for more than 30 years, you've got kids, you've got common sense - and - most importantly: you are artists, which means you feel, you've got interconnected souls

I ask you, Billie Joe:

would you like to become an activist? would you like to have an alternative to Mr. Biden und Mr. Trump? I would; - and the name of your band tells me that it's named knowing years ago where you'd go to before consciously knowing ...

once you'll be President, "green days" will begin for the world!

this is my reasoning / my thoughts:

it becomes more and more clear to me that the next President of the US of A needs to be an artist first and politician second because what's better suited and able to unite people than art?

Beethoven's "Ode to Joy" already mentions that; you've got connections all over and around the world, you feel the disruption, the need to change the current system to do so we need someone who is not part of the established political system of money, threats and weapons; someone who's able to imagine and act out of concern for earth and people worldwide someone who's able to forgive, to LOVE someone who feels, who's aware of souls, a musician, an artist someone who is known by enough people already so they won't need huge campaigns, a human who has your take on social media and the integrity to tell people we need someone whom people trust to really mean to work for their wellbeing and not for money, industry or companies someone who'll work and consult with people, who'll listen to them, who's willing to find a new way of handling issues who's interested in the "why" of things and honest and you'll have help!

I think of Mr. Josef Braml and Mathew Burrows (they've just published their new book "Die Traumwandler" - the dream-walker) or dream changer?? of Charles Eisenstein (a writer of many books) of Stacy Claxton - a midwife and life coach/healer of Ed Garner down in Arizona - an artist himself who builds guitars and works with youth of minorities... of poor people of the tribes' leaders and elders of Native American Nations (e.g. Diné/Navajo people in Arizona who are extremely concerned about NASA programs) and all sound thinking inhabitants of earth...

please, imagine, imagine how the whole atmosphere on earth could and would change if you'd announce that you run for presidency as a group of friends - as a band of 3 - aside from the current rivalry system of Democrats and Republicans as a group, a counsel what would happen? worst case, best case?

what would happen once you announce that you're willing to work with people on change that wellbeing is more than money that you'll invite Mr. Xi Jinping, Mr. Putin, Mrs. ..., Mr. ... to talk to them about new ways that you'd like to start a new world - international connections one scientific program by all interested nations no restrictions

real change can only start when we're willing to think it may I invite you to read what Rudolf Steiner says about community and the "Dear Mr. President" letter on www.goodrune.de? I'd like you to do so and then act.

Thank you!

sincerely goodrune
